Tasting Note:

Don't mistake the flinty, lime-fresh, and just-a-dash of salty quality of this wine for that of an old world's. Take a second sip and you'll get those riper notes of pineapple, guava, and white pepper. If you're really paying attention, jalapeno is just peeking around the corner. Serve up your best fish tacos with pineapple salsa, a few shakes of tajin, a squeeze of lime, and you have yourself a party.
