Hi,

Please accept my apology. I know you were hoping to download more about our wines. I'm afraid you will have to look at the HTML (click on the name of the wine instead of the word download) . I do realize this will not print well...I am sorry. The proverbial dog ate my homework. Or really, we likely had a new kid, or moved our winery, our moved our home at about the time I was supposed to have created the PDF version. Thankfully we have all of that behind us now!
